Adrienne Murphy Elected Director, Western Region Board of Directors, National Association of Credit Management

June 7, 2006: Columbia, Maryland—Adrienne G. Murphy, CCE has been elected Director, Western Region to the Board of Directors of the National Association of Credit Management (NACM). Ms. Murphy, a resident of La Habra Heights, is Director, Customer Financial Services for Sandberg Furniture Mfg. Co. Inc. in Los Angeles, California. Her career in credit, within the furniture industry, spans 25 years.

Ms. Murphy completed the NACM Mid-Career School in Scottsdale, Arizona, earned her prestigious designation of Certified Credit Executive® (CCE®) in 1999, and earned the NACM Certified Expert Witness designation in 2002.

Ms. Murphy has served ten years on the Board of Directors of the Credit Manager's Association Business Credit Services, NACM's Los Angeles Affiliate, was Chairman of the Board in 2004-2005 and continues to serve in executive and advisory committees. She was instrumental in the ANSCERS.com "Encyclopedia of Credit" from the earliest stages of planning through hiring and implementation. In recognition of her achievements, Adrienne Murphy was honored by being named Credit Executive of the Year of CMA Business Credit Services for 2003.

Ms. Murphy has also served as President of NACM's Credit and Financial Development Division (CFDD) Los Angeles twice, and serves as Vice President and Program Chairman for that organization. CFDD is the educational arm of NACM.

Ms. Murphy said, "I bring not only leadership, management and strategic planning skills to this position, but also the passion to forward my chosen profession at the national level. I have a passion for education and professional certification... and look forward to assisting others interested in furthering their career growth.
